

Comprehensive Preparedness Guide 101

Interactive Webinar

Sponsored by

National Association of SARA TITLE III Program Officials (NASTTPO)

&

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)

Course Specifics:

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and the National Association of SARA Title III Program Officials (NASTTPO) are hosting a webinar on FEMA's Comprehensive Preparedness Guide 101 (CPG).

Attendees will gain knowledge of the fundamentals of planning and developing an emergency operations plan. The webinar will cover planning efforts in the areas of prevention, response, recovery, and mitigation.

The CPG Guide outlines and expands upon emergency preparedness and encourages emergency managers to engage their communities. It focuses on an all hazards approach to addressing any risks impacting jurisdictions.

The webinar will also briefly discuss Executive Order 13650 chemical security and improving information sharing among state and local emergency managers.

This interactive webinar will also allow participants an opportunity to engage in a conversation with members of FEMA as it relates to emergency planning and preparedness.

Requirements:

Attendees must have adobe connect capability.
